English in Year 5

English throughout Year 5 covers the following:

- Reading
- Writing
- Grammar
- Punctuation
- Spelling
- Handwriting

Writing in Year 5

At the end of Y5, children working at the expected standard should be able to:

Grammar and Punctuation
Write sentences including relative clauses beginning with relative pronouns e.g. who, which, where, when, whose, that
Indicate degrees of possibility using adverbs e.g. perhaps, surely
Use devices to build cohesion within a paragraph e.g. then, after that, this, firstly
Identify and use modal verbs to express future time and possibility e.g. might, should, will, must; I might go to the park. They should be home soon.
Begin to use the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause (present perfect and past perfect)
Use brackets, dashes and commas to indicate parenthesis
Use commas to mark clauses and phrases to clarify meanings or avoid ambiguity
Use the range of punctuation taught at in lower Key Stage 2 mostly correctly
Composition
Plan writing by identifying the audience for and purpose of the writing
Begin to select appropriate grammar and vocabulary, considering how such choices can affect meaning
In narrative writing, describe settings and characters
In non-narrative writing, use further organisational and presentational devices to structure text and to guide the reader e.g. headings, bullet points, underlining
Link ideas across paragraphs using adverbials of time, place and number or tense choices
Edit vocabulary and grammar to improve consistency and effect
Proof-read for spelling and punctuation errors
Use an increasingly rich vocabulary, including ambitious vocabulary for their age
Transcription: Spelling
Spell some of the Y5/Y6 words correctly and use these appropriately in writing
Use some Y5 spelling rules and patterns from Spelling Strand Tracker within their writing
Transcription: Handwriting
Write legibly and fluently, with increasing speed (joined handwriting)

For children who have met all of the above criterion, they may then considered for working at a greater depth.

Greater Depth: Year 5
Write effectively and coherently for different purposes, drawing on their reading to inform the vocabulary and grammar of their writing *
Integrate dialogue to convey character and advance the action in narrative writing
Use a range of descriptive language to show atmosphere in narrative writing
Use a range of devices to build cohesion within and across paragraphs
Begin to write in a formal style when appropriate

Grammar and Punctuation

Writing (including Grammar and Punctuation) objectives for Y5

At the end of Year 5, children working at the expected standard should be able to:

Grammar and Punctuation
Use expanded noun phrases to convey complicated information concisely
Write sentences including relative clauses beginning with relative pronouns e.g. who, which, where, when, whose, that
Indicate degrees of possibility using adverbs e.g. perhaps, surely
Identify and use modal verbs to express future time and possibility e.g. might, should, will, must; I might go to the park. They should be home soon.
Use brackets, dashes and commas to indicate parenthesis
Use commas to mark clauses and phrases to clarify meanings or avoid ambiguity
Know and use the following words accurately when talking about sentences: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Modal verb</li><li>• Relative clause, relative pronoun</li><li>• Parenthesis</li><li>• Bracket, dash</li><li>• Cohesion</li><li>• Ambiguity</li></ul>
Begin to use the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause

Spelling

Transcription: Spelling
Spell some of the Y5/Y6 words correctly and use these appropriately in writing
Use a thesaurus
Use Y5 spelling rules and patterns within their writing [RWInc Spelling 5]
Use dictionaries to check the spelling and meaning of words
Transcription: Handwriting
Write legibly and fluently, with increasing speed (joined handwriting)

Children will be sent home with weekly spellings to learn and will be tested on these the following week. The results of these tests can be found at the back of your child's diary.

There is also a list of the statutory spellings at the back of their diaries for them to learn.

Reading

Word Reading
Read age-appropriate books with confidence and fluency (including whole novels) *
Read with intonation that shows understanding *
Apply their knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes both to read aloud and to understand the meaning of new words that they meet.
Comprehension
Make comparisons within and across books *
Work out the meaning of words from the context *
Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read *
Draw inferences (such as characters' feelings, thoughts and motives) and justify these with evidence *
Predict what might happen from details stated and implied *
Summarise main ideas, identifying key details and using quotations for illustration *
Evaluate how authors use language, including figurative language, considering the impact on the reader *
Retrieve, record and present information from non-fiction *
Read and discuss a wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and other reference material
Read books that are structured in different ways and read for a range of purposes
Talk with confidence about a range of books, including myths, legends and traditional stories, modern fiction, fiction from our literary heritage and books from other cultures and traditions
Recommend books to their peers, giving reasons for their choices
Identify and discuss themes and conventions in and across a wide range of writing
Know a range of poetry by heart
Prepare poems and plays to read aloud and to perform, showing understanding through intonation, tone and volume so the meaning is clear to an audience
Ask relevant questions to improve their understanding
Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning
Distinguish between statements of fact and opinion
Participate in discussions about books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, building on their own and others' ideas and challenging views courteously
Provide reasoned justifications for their views

During the school day, the children will have a mixture of guided or whole class reading sessions that focus on developing their reading skills.

In addition to this, they will be heard read by an adult fortnightly or more frequently if needed.

The expectation is that your child will read at home and record it in their diaries at least three times a week, ideally daily.

Maths

This year, the children will revisit the different areas of maths and also complete a weekly arithmetic session.

The Maths No Problem overview is an example of which topics are covered.
